EXPLORE, EAT, SHOP

Ready to shop, snack, and sightsee your way through Richmond? Let this flavour-packed itinerary guide you through the city's top spots—with time to browse, bite, and bring home a few stylish finds.

DAY 1

Start your day with a classic dim sum breakfast at Fisherman's Terrace Restaurant (1.5 hours), a local favourite located inside Aberdeen Centre—one of Richmond's most iconic Asian malls. After your meal, take time to explore the mall's diverse shops and catch the synchronized fountain display (1 hour).

From adjoining Aberdeen Station, board the Canada Line SkyTrain and travel two stops to Richmond–Brighouse Station. Directly across the street, CF Richmond Centre awaits—a bright, fashion-forward mall with around 200 stores (2 hours). It's also home to a wide selection of food court options—perfect for a bubble waffle or a bubble tea break if you're in need of a recharge.

After a day of shopping, it's time to unwind with dinner.

OPTION 1

Travel by taxi to Steveston Village, recently named Metro Vancouver's #1 neighbourhood, and enjoy a relaxed stroll along Fisherman's Wharf before settling in for a refined evening at Baan Lao (2.5 hours). Consistently earning accolades—including being named Canada's Best Restaurant 2024—Baan Lao offers an authentic Royal Thai dining experience that celebrates both heritage and innovation, all while using seasonal ingredients sourced from local farms and waters. Reservations are required and highly recommended for this sought-after culinary gem.
